Presentations	Hello Idaho by Optum presented by Wendy Stoneberg. Shared a presentation on Hello Idaho 2020 Campaign Overview. Looking at how to do a statewide campaign empowering people to create a culture of inclusion and connectedness. Provides tools for students, stakeholders, businesses, and community partners to address emotional and physical isolation. Using social media, using the #mymentalhealthidaho and #helloidaho. Materials and toolkits can be downloaded for free from their website at optum.com/helloidaho . June 1 launched through April 2021. Doing a Cheer Challenge to post on social media. Wendy.stoneberg@optum.com

Sub-Committee Reports	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children’s Mental Health – No report. Next month • Adult Behavioral Health – planned to have joint meeting with Adult and Children today, but it did not come together. Still want to meet. Want to talk together what to do with the Hello Idaho campaign. Two key concepts are mental health awareness month and suicide prevention month. Clark meeting rescheduled for next month; on October 10th would like to have a speaker panel; use the library as the host location with a panel discussion & working with Wendy from Optum. • Housing – Greg is on vacation; Marilyn Miller offered the group is updating agency list; broke down in counties; also working on the symposium. • PFS – Amy Hirtle – found out a week a half ago that we could carry over the funding to the middle of September. and adapted the program as best we could. Looking at continuing with some projects that we were unable to do, especially with Sandpoint. Work with parents on locking up medication boxes. Hoping to market to the general community. Claudia thanked Amy for all her hard work on the boxes and getting them to the agencies that need them.
